Local Observance of Roe v. Wade

Can't get all the way to DC? Join us for a local observance on the anniversary of Roe v. Wade on Monday, January 23 from 12 noon to 4pm.

The observance will begin with noon Mass in SS Peter and Paul Cathedral. Following Mass, there will be a prayerful and peaceful march along North Meridian St with signs, the image of Our Lady of Guadalupe and opportunities to pray the rosary and the chaplet of divine mercy.

After the march, there will be a Rally for Life at SS Peter and Paul Cathedral. The keynote speaker will be Liz Carl (A nationally known speaker, graduate of University of Louisville and a rape survivor, she will share her story of hope and healing after she gave birth to her son)

A Cup of Coffee and a Dose of Conscience

Do Faith, politics and caffeine mix? What do our Catholic beliefs have to do with how we vote and the laws we support? To find out, come to "A Cup of Coffee with a Dose of Conscience" on Saturday, January 28 from 2-4pm at Our Lady of the Greenwood. The discussion will be led by Dr Kevin Schemenauer, assistant professor of theology at Marian University and will be grounded in the Bishop's document, "Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship."

Bears' Patrick McCaskey at the Catholic Center

St. Paul Catholic Center invites you to attend an evening with Chicago Bears Director Patrick McCaskey. Join us Monday, February 13th at 7pm at St. Paul Catholic Center, 1413 E 17th St.

We want to pack the house. Please invite your friends and family to this great event. McCaskey will reveal his personal faith journey and how faith is key in the lives of many athletes, coaches, religious leaders and others he has known. Based on his book, Sports and Faith: Stories of the Devoted and the Devout, McCaskey's vibrant presentation will look at decades of spiritual enlightenment and life lessons, recalling with Good humor and compassion those who made the cut on and off the field, plus people who left comfortable lives to serve the under-served in extraordinary ways.

Adoration

ALL young adults and adults of all ages are invited to stop by the chapel at St. Barnabas to spend some time with Jesus in the Eucharist!

St. Barnabas
8300 Rahke Rd
Indpls, IN 46217

(To access the Teresa of Avila chapel, enter through the main doors of the Church and take a right down the hallway. The chapel is located next to the sacristy)

Need childcare? No problem

We have a list of Junior High and High School students were asked to be put on a babysitting list. The list includes some sitters who are willing to babysit for service hours instead of pay when parents are attending or helping with parish sponsored events.

Contact Meli (barber.meli@gmail.com) for the list!

A Final Thought

“There is nothing that we can do but love, and dear God, please enlarge our hearts to love each other, to love our neighbor, to love our enemy as well as our friend.” –Dorothy Day

... May our hearts be enlarged in 2012 to truly embrace the Gospel call to love each other as we love ourselves!
